

BADGE: REGULAR PRETERIT

Skip lines.

(English sentence, translation, and room for corrections)

EXAMPLE:

GIVEN: I boarded the plane.

TRANSLATE: Yo abordé el avión.

1. Yesterday I ate three bananas.
2. Damian swam in the ocean last summer
3. Three hours ago, I wrote the letter.
4. He confirmed our flight last night.
5. You (informal) passed through customs easily.
6. They took a taxi to the train station.
7. Julia and Juan tied the game.
8. You (informal) scored many goals last summer.
9. You (formal) called your grandmother two days ago.

BADGE: IRREGULAR PRETERIT: SOLE VERBS

Skip lines

(English sentence, translation, and room for corrections)

1. She preferred to dance.
2. He served the lemonade to the passengers
3. They slept well last night.
4. My mom asked for the new flight.
5. The Seahawks competed in the NFC championship game.
6. You (formal) fell asleep at the movie theater.
7. She followed the street to the store.
8. They preferred to study in the morning.
9. He dressed quickly this morning.