

Double Object Pronouns/Elvis

PARTE ONE

1. What can change when you use two object pronouns together? Why?
2. What is the WORD ORDER for these pronouns? (1st? 2nd? 3rd?)

DOP SUBJECT IOP

3. Where – in relation to specific verb forms – can these terms be placed?
 1. Conjugated verb:
 2. Infinitive Verb:
 3. Positive Command:
 4. Negative Command:

PARTE TWO: Translate these sentences BOTH WAYS possible. (Move the pronouns to the other possible location. Write the sentence following Rule #1 and then again following Rule #2.)

1. You (informal) gave them to me. (the boarding passes)
2. He confirmed them for us. (the flights)
3. I am going to buy it for you (informal). (the ticket)
4. We want to make them for her. (the reservations)
5. They need to recommend them to you (formal). (them = day trips/hikes)